Digital Readiness for Business			$10,370

In an era where digital presence is paramount for business success, our Digital Readiness for Business program has emerged as a beacon of support for local enterprises striving to enhance their online capabilities. Over the course of 2018, our non-profit collaborated with four diverse businesses—a construction company, two event planning firms, and the dynamic Brooklyn Zoo NY— delivering essential services that resulted in substantial savings and transformative improvements.

Through our affordable services, these businesses collectively saved $2,000, allowing them to reinvest their resources into growth and innovation. Our dedicated staff and volunteers committed over 191 hours to working closely with these enterprises, contributing $9,150 worth of donated volunteer service hours. This investment of time and expertise underscores our commitment to empowering local businesses and fostering a thriving community.

The range of services we provided was tailored to meet the unique needs of each business, including custom artwork for marketing materials, logo design, brand management, and web development. These essentials not only elevated their brand identities but also enhanced their overall market presence.

Among our partners, Brooklyn Zoo NY stood out as the largest project and a remarkable example of digital transformation. By implementing strategic enhancements, we facilitated a more seamless customer experience, which included improvements such as easier customer registration and faster online communication. These changes led to an impressive 20% increase in customer engagement, reflecting the effectiveness of our collaborative efforts. Moreover, the user experience on Brooklyn Zoo NY's website became significantly smoother, resulting in a decrease in bounced pages and an increase in page read time. These metrics not only indicate a more engaging and user friendly platform but also signify the success of our mission to equip businesses with the tools they need to thrive in the digital landscape.

Community Grants			$4,036

Our Community Grant Program is committed to nurturing creativity and innovation across New York City by providing essential supplies to organizations and initiatives that enrich our communities. This year, we proudly invested a total of $922 in high-quality supplies and allocated $3,114 for storage, ensuring that we can effectively manage and distribute these resources to those in need.

Through this program, we are not only investing in tangible materials but also fostering a culture of creativity and collaboration. By strategically sourcing supplies, we are preparing to empower over 100 individuals within our community through scholarships and direct requests, enabling them to realize their creative visions and projects.

The impact of our Community Grant Program extends far beyond the supplies themselves; it is about building a supportive ecosystem that encourages artistic expression and community engagement. We are excited to see how these investments will inspire local organizations and individuals to create meaningful initiatives that celebrate the vibrant tapestry of our city. Together, we are sowing the seeds for a brighter, more imaginative future in New York City!

Schools Out			$3,697

Our Mid-Winter Break Schools Out Camp in Brooklyn, was a vibrant hub of learning, creativity, and community for local children and families. Our program, designed to provide affordable childcare during the school break, offered a unique opportunity for 11 enthusiastic campers aged 4 to 10 years old to engage in a variety of enriching activities, while also delivering significant financial relief to families in our community.

Thanks to our commitment to accessibility, we proudly offered 6 free and 5 reduced-rate camp spots, priced at $60 to $150 per week, a mere fraction of the usual rate, resulting in a remarkable total savings of $4,440 for families who would otherwise face the financial strain of traditional childcare options, which can cost up to $450 per week per child.

This model not only eased the burden on families but also fostered an inclusive environment where all children could thrive, regardless of their economic background.

Throughout the week, our dedicated staff and volunteers—comprised of 2 skilled team members and 4 enthusiastic helpers—curated a diverse array of activities that balanced educational enrichment with fun and physical activity. Campers donned their chef hats as they learned to make pizza and pancakes from scratch, igniting their culinary creativity and teamwork skills. Physical activity was a cornerstone of our program, as children enjoyed soccer and free play in the gym, promoting health and wellness through active play.

The thrill of discovery was palpable during our science project, where campers created "elephant toothpaste," witnessing the excitement of chemical reactions firsthand. This hands-on experience not only sparked curiosity but also reinforced key scientific concepts in an engaging way. Additionally, our campers had the opportunity to work on homework, ensuring they stayed on track academically during their break.

Creativity flourished in our free time arts and crafts sessions and board games, where children collaborated and built friendships, further enhancing their social skills. The highlight of the week was undoubtedly our exhilarating trip to Brooklyn Zoo NY, a ninja parkour venue where campers leaped into foam pits, swung from bars, and navigated challenging obstacle courses. This adventure was not only a thrilling experience but also an opportunity for campers to develop physical coordination and confidence.
